1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

Abstract has been replaced with:

An integrated circuit distribution and upgrade method, and systems/devices to practice various aspect of the method that is for reducing power consumption and operating the integrated circuit with a constituent operating circuit and a proxy circuit near the lower end of the targeted voltage range.

In claim 1, line 8, before "proxy signal", "the" has been replaced with -- a --.

In claim 20, line 3, before "target proxy", "the" has been replaced with -- a --.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: none of prior art in record taken alone or in combination shows a method comprising determining for an IC a target for a proxy frequency of a periodic signal, that is associated with the IC and taken into consideration in regulating voltage to be applied to a constituent operational circuit of the IC, and reflective of a potential of an operational frequency thereof, having a proxy circuit for outputting a proxy signal, and downlocking at least a selected of the target of the proxy frequency, a bus-to-core frequency multiplier of the constituent operational circuit, minimum and maximum Vcc, a maximum temperature, and a bus frequency ratio multiplier associated with the IC as recited in independent claim 1, and further limitations as recited in other independent claims 14, 20, 28 and 32 of the instant application.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
